

C1 Leader Job Description

Columbia One (C1) Leaders are collaborative individuals with a desire to support holistic growth in the lives of others, particularly in the area of life discernment. Working with a diverse group of students, C1 Leaders are key contributors in helping foster transformation in the lives of C1 students through friendship, mentoring, small group leadership, and program event planning.

Qualifications/expectations

- Exhibit maturity and responsibility in faith and life
- Show initiative in relationships and responsibilities
- Confidence mentoring and supporting others in life discernment
- Ability to work in a team environment
- Uphold all CBC community standards
- Completed at least one year of academic studies at CBC (3rd/4th year student preferred)
- Current CBC student with a 2.5 cumulative GPA

Responsibilities (average of 8-10 hrs/week)

Required

- Participate in the Student Development leadership training program
- Attend the New Student Retreat (early September)
- On-campus connecting: be a presence with C1 students during informal times on campus (e.g. dining hall, student lounge, etc...), developing friendships and helping foster community within the program
- Mentoring: connect regularly with C1 students one-on-one to provide support and encouragement, particularly in the area of life discernment
- Help plan and run C1 special events (e.g. program lunches, movie nights, etc...)
- Other duties as determined appropriate by the C1 Director

Additional opportunities (to be assessed based on experience and need)

- Serve as a leader for C1 UMD placements
- Teaching Assistant work: help with C1 courses where applicable
- Committee work: join a STUCCO committee to give voice for C1 and explore an area of interest/calling (e.g. Arts, Missional Life, etc...)

Provided

- Leadership supervision
- Costs for group activities and leadership training
- Remuneration: $1500